Winner of Arts SA's Ruby Award for Outstanding Children's Event in 2022, Seven Little Wonders is a joyous celebration of music, colour and light for 3-8 year olds and families.

“When StarMan Sam miraculously arrives from over the rainbow, he brings with him a bagful of music, colour and light – and before you know it, he's dancing up a storm of magic and wonder. And when the fun is done, StarMan Sam needs to get home! BUT something is wrong. The way is blocked! The world is stuck! He needs your help! “

Seven Little Wonders

The seven colours of the rainbow, the seven notes of music along with Imogen and six star children from the audience help Starman Sam find his way home and in doing so, they discover parts of themselves they never knew existed.

Seven Little Wonders draws inspiration from Margaret Mahy's beloved children's book "The Man from the Land of Fandango", David Bowie's iconic song StarMan" and Sir Isaac Newton's exploration of music, colour and light.

It's a non-verbal, immersive visual theatre performance experience which lures all-comers, young and old, into a spellbinding story celebrating the power of art and creation.

This intimate, interactive and beautiful work conceived by veteran children's theatre-makers, Dave Brown and Bob Weatherly working with highly experienced professional artists, Sarah Brokensha and Gavin Clarke is "delightfully vibrant and joyous fun" Andy Ahrens Review.
